

70th Anniversary Year

'Turning the key'

'Education is the key to unlocking a world of possibilities and opportunities. We just have to help children turn the key.'

What does that mean to you?

- Each child has their own door to unlock
- Opening the door to all possibilities
- Unlocking hidden potential
- Empowering and giving more confidence
- The right key for children to learn
- Overcoming barriers to learning
- Creating inquisitive children
- Giving children the right tools to open the right door
- Not one key fits all
- Door handle can't be too high
- Domino effect
- Habits and routines apply to many keys
- Doors to learning need to be accessible
- Children need to turn the key themselves
- Scaffolding
- Identifying strengths
- New beginnings / fresh start
